Annual tourism benchmark report for fiscal year 2018-2019

As required by IGA, section 2.6 of previous agreement with county, and per new agreement with Tillamook Coast Visitors Association

Presented August, 2019
to Tillamook County Board of Commissioners
Prepared by Nan Devlin, Executive Director
Tillamook Coast Visitors Association

2018-2019 HIGHLIGHTS

It's been a busy year.

This fiscal year has been one of continuing transition, both as an organization and in destination development.

ORGANIZATIONAL GOALS

- Formed a 501(c)(6), Tillamook Coast Visitors Association, and a new, 11-member tourism board of directors. The organization is now its own fiscal agent, separate from Tillamook Bay Community College, which operated as our fiscal agent since 2014 through the Economic Development Council.
- Developed a new and extensive chart of accounts aligned to destination administration. This will provide a more complete story of our activities, and enable us to cross reference transactions to the updated “Three R’s” benchmarks required in the new funding agreement with the county.
- With objectives nearly completed in the Tourism 2025 plan created in 2014 (see attached list), we will develop a new tourism strategic plan that aligns with the Three R’s and the county’s strategy for sustainable tourism infrastructure planning.

RETURN ON RESPONSIBILITY (Destination Management)

- Wayfinding planning in Nehalem, Rockaway Beach, Wheeler and Pacific City. RFPs for fabrication and installation are being reviewed now for Nehalem.
- Visit Tillamook Coast is coordinating of the North Coast Tourism Management Network, working with Clatsop County and Travel Oregon on sustainable tourism programs. One transportation option program is underway, and two will launch in September: stewardship communications and action plan, and a Trailhead and Beach Ambassador program, with volunteer efforts starting in Ecola State Park, Hug Point at Oswald West State Park, Rockaway Beach and Cape Kiwanda. The network is the outcome of the North Coast Destination Management Studio conducted by Travel Oregon.
- Presented twice at the Governor’s Conference on Tourism, one on food trail development, and one on “Caring for the Coast,” our environmental stewardship messaging, which Travel Oregon recognized as one of the best in the state.

RETURN ON RELATIONSHIPS (Business and Community Development)

- Completed objectives for the Business Oregon Rural Opportunity Initiative grant to restart the Recipe to Market sessions, and conduct feasibility studies for developing a food distribution system and a north coast food brand effort (see attached metrics report).
- Crave the Coast successfully launched and is named a finalist for Sunset Magazine’s Reader Choice Travel Award for best food festival. The festival hosted 794 attendees: 40% from Tillamook County, 44% from other Oregon counties and 16% from other states. Vendors reported selling out of product (see attached graphic).

- Launched second year of the North Coast Food Trail with 75 participants. Since July 2018, the trail has garnered multiple print, online and broadcast stories worth $2.1 million in earned media. Travel Oregon recognized us with a Best Niche Tourism Program award at the Governor's Conference on Tourism.
- Co-hosted 2nd annual Beer+Cheese event, raising $3,750 for Food Roots
- Sponsored a county-wide, 4-day grant writing workshop for nonprofit organizations.
- Launching Quilt Month in October, celebrating the county's cultural heritage.
- Helped two organizations develop marketing plans and two others are underway.
- Awarded $97,800 in grants to 13 organizations and businesses.

RETURN ON INVESTMENT (Messaging and Information)

- New videos: Tillamook Air Museum, Trees to Sea Scenic Byway, Oregon Coast Scenic Railroad, and a fourth will be unveiled in September, a music video showcasing our environment. We helped fund a fifth video on the Garibaldi Boathouse.
- Published 25 Cultural Adventures on the Tillamook Coast, our third guidebook.
- Continued sponsorship with Oregon Public Broadcasting: Oregon Field Guide, Oregon Experience and Cook's Country: Test Kitchen covering outdoor recreation and environmental awareness, cultural heritage and culinary/agritourism. OPB continues to be an ideal match for demographics and psychographics to attract visitors to our area.

Grants – Received

- Receiving a $25,000 grant from Travel Oregon to help fund the North Coast Tourism Management Network program. City of Seaside, Cannon Beach Chamber, Astoria/Warrenton Chamber, Oregon Coast Visitors Association and Visit Tillamook Coast are helping fund the Network programs. VTC will administer funds.
- Completed objectives for the $45,000 grant from the Business Oregon Rural Opportunity Initiative with excellent results: restart the Recipe to Market program; develop a Tillamook Coast brand of food products to coincide with the Department of Agriculture's Oregon brand; and a feasibility study on development of a farm to market food hub (see attached report). Additional $5000 grant from The Ford Family Foundation funded an online Spanish-language business building platform on the Small Business Development Center website to help food entrepreneurs in the Hispanic community start businesses.

	934 website leads in 2017	6,234 in 2018 -2019 – more than 6X growth
Comments: OCVA leads are no longer available to tourism organizations, per a decision by Travel Oregon’s global sales department. However, visitor guide requests from tillamookcoast.com have increased substantially. Tillamook Creamery visitor center and Safeway use 20,000 guides each year. Printed guides and maps continue to be the #1 visitor information piece onsite.
JackRabbit Lodging booking engine Annual cost: $8,700	Referrals: 6,367 Estimated bookings: 231	Booking revenue: $66,847 Average length of stay: 2.79 7.5X return

Earned media	Goal: 75 articles	185 – 147% more than goal Ad/channel worth: $6.5 million ($2.1 million worth was focused on the North Coast Food Trail)  86X return on investment
Comments: Earned media is “not paid advertising,” usually in the form of published articles about the destination. We pitch to and place articles in publications, and pitch ideas to writers, who pitch their articles to magazines. It also includes pieces that appear as a “surprise.” The advertising equivalency is determined by the length of the article and the cost of same-space advertising, and number of channels the piece appears in:  Ad worth is estimated at number of media placements (average 2 pages each) x average cost per ad page x 3 for three channels – print, social media and online.

Broadcast stories	Goal: 16	34
Comments: Among the stories: Oregon Field Guide (Bayocean story and Pacific City surfing story), KPTV Good Oregon Andy’s Adventures – four new stories); KPTV What’s Happening (four stories), Grant’s Getaways (eight stories, including Tidepool stewardship); KATU Afternoon Live (three); Northwest Radio Network (six stories); PBS Food - The Original Fare, and Matt Freehill of Tillamook Meats, who won championship on “The Butcher.”

Event: Crave the Coast	North Coast food vendors	794 attendees (1st year)
Event: Beer + Cheese	Fundraiser for Food Roots	Raised $3,750

Community training programs	Goal: 60 participants	142 participants – 136% over goal
Comments: VTC hosted five training and pilot program sessions: three social media training sessions – two for Tillamook Coast History Alliance in social media; one interpretive guide training for cultural organizations, with 18 attendees; one county-wide, 4-day grant writing workshop with 52 attendees; two Guest Service Gold hospitality trainings; funded a volunteerism pilot program in Manzanita, with 28 attendees. (See additional trainings in Business Oregon Rural Opportunity Initiative Grant activities.)

In addition to the above sessions:

- Funded an online, Spanish-language business building platform through the Small Business Development Center
- Collaborating with Port of Garibaldi, ColPac, Rural Development Initiatives, EcoTrust and Food Roots in a public/private partnership to develop a farm and fisheries product distribution system, which will be an entrepreneurial effort
- Sponsoring Food Roots Farm/Table store in downtown Tillamook
- Sponsoring local farm participation in Travel Portland’s “Seed to Table” industry trip to Japan to promote Oregon North Coast food brand

Next steps:

- A full report will be created to share with the community.
- Business Oregon will inform us of additional funding to move from Concept phase to Implementation phase, which we will use for the distribution system, and expanding local food marketing.
