

Plan your Car-Free Pacific City Trip

Want to bring your bike with you?

All NW Connector buses are equipped with bike racks or storage

Getting here

NW Connector

From Portland (Union Station):

Take the NW Connector (The Wave Route 5):
Portland to Tillamook, then connect to Route 4

From Salem (Downtown Transit Center):

Take the NW Connector (The Wave Route 60X):
Salem to Lincoln City, then connect to Route 4

nworegontransit.org

Pelican Brewing Bus Stop

The Pelican Brewing Bus Stop is located at Cape Kiwanda Drive and Alder Street and provides routes to Lincoln City and Tillamook, with connections to Portland and Salem.

NORTH COAST TOURISM MGMT. NETWORK

TOURISM MANAGEMENT NETWORK

While you're here

By Foot

You can get a full weekend away at the beach just by walking around. Pacific City's many restaurants, wineries, breweries, grocery stores, and trails are just a walk away.

By Trolley Bus

The Wave's Pacific City Free Shuttle operates on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from Memorial Day weekend to Labor Day weekend. The trolley shuttle provides transportation to destinations throughout the city and surrounding areas, including parks, natural areas, and the boat launch.

nworegontransit.org/pacific-city-shuttle

By Taxi

Feeling tired? Taxi and Uber services are now available in Tillamook County.

Beach Access for Everyone

Beach wheelchairs are available for visitors with mobility challenges so everyone can access our beautiful beaches. To reserve, visit

innatcapekiwanda.com/beach-wheelchairs

Learn More

For routes, schedules, ticket information, updates, and more info about car-free transportation options, use the QR code or visit: bit.ly/carfreenorthcoast

